7 Okay?

9 Can I see counsel for a second?

4 point in time.

5                   I now can excuse you from further service
6 as jurors in this case. I want to thank you for
7 your time and for your attention. It's not an easy
8 thing being in judge of your fellow man, but our
9 system of justice depends on people like yourselves
10 doing this for us every day, and we all greatly
11 appreciate it.

12                  Couple of housekeeping matters. I'm going
13 to ask you to leave those juror badges behind.
14 They'll be recycled and used again.

15                  I'm going to ask to leave your notes
16 behind. They're going to be destroyed. They will
17 not be read by anybody.

18                  You can now talk to anybody you want to 19 about the case or not talk to anybody you want to 20 about the case, and if you want to speak to either
21 Ms. Hopkins or Mr. Lacey, you can find them at the 22 U.S. Attorney's Office, blue pages of the telephone
23 book. Mr. Cooper, Mr. Young, or Mr. Armstrong, you
24 can find them in the yellow pages of the phone
25 book.

1 || Counsel?

4 MR. LACEY: We have the forfeiture issue
5 to address, Judge.

6 THE COURT: What's your client going to do
7 about the forfeiture?

8 MR. COOPER: He doesn't care. Forfeited.

9 THE COURT: That's what I thought.

10 MR. LACEY: Okay. As far as the others,
11 we'll worry about that later.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 (End of bench conference.)

14                   THE COURT: If you see either I or the 15 lawyers walking around in southern Arizona, feel
16 free to say hi. We're not near as mean as we 17 look.

18                   If you have any questions for me, I'll be 19                   back in the jury room in about five minutes to 20                   answer any questions that you have. Again, thank 21                   you for your time and for your attention. You're 22                   now excused.

23 || (The jury exits the courtroom.)

THE COURT: Show the absence of the jury, presence of all counsel and the defendants.

1                   Mr. Tucker, I'm going to set sentencing
2 for you on Friday, November the 2nd, at 9:10 in the 3 morning. Probation's going to do a report I will
4 -- yes, sir?

5                   DEFENDANT GHERMON TUCKER: No. Go ahead.
6 I'm going to ask you a question later.

7                   THE COURT: You can ask me now.

8                   DEFENDANT GHERMON TUCKER: No, go ahead.

9                   THE COURT: Probation is going to
10 interview you in preparation of that report. I
11 will use that report to decide what your sentence
12 should be.

13                  If there is anything you want me to know,
14 there are four ways you can participate in making
15 that decision. Way number one, tell probation.
16 They'll tell me. Way number two, you can write me
17 a letter. I'll read it. Way number three, you can 18 assist your attorney in preparation of any
19 sentencing memorandum that he does. And way number
20 four, you'll have a chance to speak to me in court
21 on the day of sentencing. Once again, it's
22 November the 2nd at 9:10 in the morning.

23                  You had a question?

24                  DEFENDANT GHERMON TUCKER: Yes, I was
25 wondering, could you allow me to stay at Wilmot

1 until I get sentenced?

2 THE COURT: I'll certainly ask the
3 marshals to see if they can do that. I can't make
4 any guarantees, but I will try.

5 MR. COOPER: I was hoping as well, Your
6 Honor. Thank you.

7 THE COURT: All right. The other issue
8 is, you agreed that any interest you have in the 9 car that you had with your name on it you
10 forfeited; is that correct?

11 DEFENDANT GHERMON TUCKER: They didn't
12 take my car.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 MR. LACEY: His car wasn't at issue. The 15 guns were the issue.

16 THE COURT: He doesn't want anything to do
17 with the guns. They'll be gone.

18 Right, Mr. Tucker?

19 DEFENDANT GHERMON TUCKER: Yes.

20 THE COURT: All right. When you speak to
21 probation, you have a right to have your attorney
22 present with you during that conversation. All I
23 ask is that, whatever questions you choose to 24 answer, you be truthful.

25 Understood?

1 DEFENDANT GHERMON TUCKER: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: Any further questions?

3 DEFENDANT GHERMON TUCKER: No, sir.

4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Ja'Cory Ranger
5 and Mr. Jerome Ranger, I wouldn't normally do this,
6 but I may have this opportunity only once.

7 You each dodged a tremendous bullet in
8 this case. I wasn't there. I don't know what went 9 on. You two do. Mr. Young said something in his 10 closing argument that you might want to take to 11 heart, and it has something to do with, if you
12 sleep with dogs, you wake up with flees, something
13 like that.

14 The people you hang around with, the 15 places that you go, the things that you do, they
16 come back to bite you, and they come back to bite
17 you big time.

18 Whatever happened in this case, the next
19 time you hear even hint of a discussion about going 20 someplace to take something that doesn't belong to 21 you, my suggestion to you is, go the other way.
22 Walk away. Walk away fast.

23 Mr. Young talked about the fact that you
24 can have guns in Arizona. You can have AK-47s.
25 You can have MR-15s. Yes, you can have those

1 things. Probably not a good idea.

2 The jury, having found Mr. Ja'Cory Ranger
3 not guilty, he's released.

4 Good luck to both of you.

5 Oh, Mr. Ja'Cory Ranger, Mr. Jerome Ranger,
6 do each of you forfeit any interest you might have
7 had in the guns involved in this case?

8 DEFENDANT JA'CORY RANGER: Excuse me?

9 THE COURT: Do you forfeited any interest
10 you might have had in the guns involved in this
11 case?

12 DEFENDANT JA'CORY RANGER: Yeah, yeah.
13 I'm not worried about it.

14 DEFENDANT JEROME RANGER: Yes. Yes, sir.

15 MR. LACEY: And the Escalade as well, Your
16 Honor?

17 DEFENDANT JA'CORY RANGER: Nah, nah. I
18 want my truck.

19 THE COURT: You're going have to fight for 20 the Escalade. You may not get it still.

21 DEFENDANT JA'CORY RANGER: All right.

22 THE COURT: Good luck to you.

23 MR. LACEY: Thanks Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 (Proceedings concluded in this matter.)
